

REQUIRES FOLLOWING STAFF

EPTRI, an Autonomous State Government Organisation executing National projects on Environment Protection, Training and Research related activities, is looking for experienced candidates in GIS and Satellite Remote Sensing Applications. Candidates who possess required qualifications and work experience may apply through this web site within 7 days from the date of publication.

1. Project Faculty-GIS 2 Posts

Should have passed Post Graduation in Sciences/Envi Engg. Good Knowledge in Remote Sensing, GPS and GIS. Professional Level Experience in using ARCGIS / ERDAS or similar Application Software, Execution of Remote Sensing/GIS Application projects Independently and Work Experience at National or State Application Centres is considered as an added advantage.

2. Project Faculty – RS Applications 1 Post

Should have Passed Post Graduation in any of the Earth Sciences. Experience in visual or digital analysis of satellite data for natural resources mapping, Good Knowledge in Remote Sensing Application projects and capability to execute projects at professional level independently and Work experience at National or State Applications Centres is considered as an added advantage.

Eligible candidates may send their CVs by post or by e-mail to dgeptri@gmail.com or dq@eptri.com latest by 2.6.2017. Visit Website www.eptri.com for details.

Director General